Stock Market Crash Today , July 30, 2025: Benchmark equity indices Sensex and Nifty ended on an optimistic note on Wednesday backed by robust earnings from Larsen & Toubro. However, gains were capped due to caution surrounding the US Fed's upcoming policy decision and ongoing uncertainty over the delayed India-US trade deal.

"The major drag on the market continues to be the negative news on the India-US trade front. President Trump's comment that 'India may have to pay 20-25 per cent tariff' is very negative from the short-term market perspective," VK Vijayakumar, Chief Investment Strategist, Geojit Investments Limited, said.

The key highlight was the lower rupee which was driven by FII selling both in equity and bond markets indicating there are few more sessions of consolidation ahead. There is a need for a positive trigger for any upward movement. This can also be concurred from the fact that Nifty could not breach the 25000 mark in today's session as well."
